HEALTH CARE FOR ALL

If you are a student you may qualify for MassHealth if:

- You are a Massachusetts resident; and
- If you are 21 years old or older, your household income is at or below 138% of the Federal Poverty Level ($16,116/year for an individual or $27,324/year for a family of three in 2014).
- If you are 20 years old or younger, your household income is at or below 155% of the Federal Poverty Level ($18,096/year for an individual or $30,684/year for a family of three in 2014).

Even if you can't get MassHealth, you may be able to get help buying health insurance through the Health Connector, the online marketplace (www.mahealthconnector.org) if:

- You are a Massachusetts resident; and
- Your household income is at or below 400% of the Federal Poverty Level ($45,960/year for an individual or $78,120/year for a family of three in 2014).

 If you are declared a dependent on your parents' taxes, their income counts in addition to yours.
